Without excluding other permissible activities, a foreign corporation is not considered to be transacting business or conducting affairs in Montana, by reason or carrying on any one or more of the following activities in the State, and a certificate of authority is not required:

- (1) maintaining, defending or settling any proceeding;
- (2) holding meetings of the board of directors or shareholders or carrying on other activities concerning its internal affairs;
- (3) maintaining bank accounts;
- (4) maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange and registration of the corporation's own securities or maintaining trustees or depositories with respect to those securities;
- (5) selling through independent contractors;
- (6) soliciting or obtaining orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise, if the orders require acceptance outside this state before they become binding contracts;
- (7) creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages and security interests in real or personal property;
- (8) securing or collecting debts or enforcing mortgages and security interests in property securing the debts;
- (9) owning real or personal property that is acquired incident to activities described in number 8 above if the property is disposed of within five years after the date of acquisition does not produce income, or it is not used in the performance of a corporate function;
- (10) conducting an isolated transaction that is completed within 30 days and is not a transaction in the course of repeated transactions of a similar nature;
- (11) transacting any business in interstate commerce.
